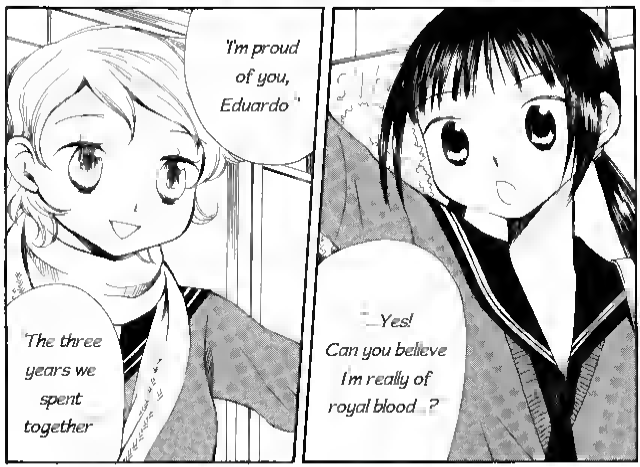
The Imaginary Land

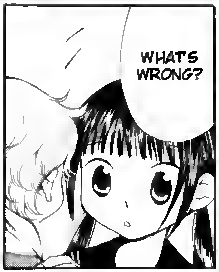
Hakamada Mera

Have you come to see me off? Thank you, Johannes.
You're really going to be king!
THE TIME HAS COME FOR US TO PART.

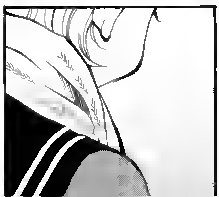


I'm proud of you, Eduardo.
The three years we spent together
Yes! Can you believe I'm really of royal blood...?

'As they are for me, Johannes.
I'm proud to have been your friend.'
'are a wonderful treasure for me.
'I was all alone in this town, and you gave me courage and hope.
'So I'll see you off with a smile.
HUUU
"Thank you."
"I'll never forget the dreamlike days we spent together."



WHAT'S WRONG?



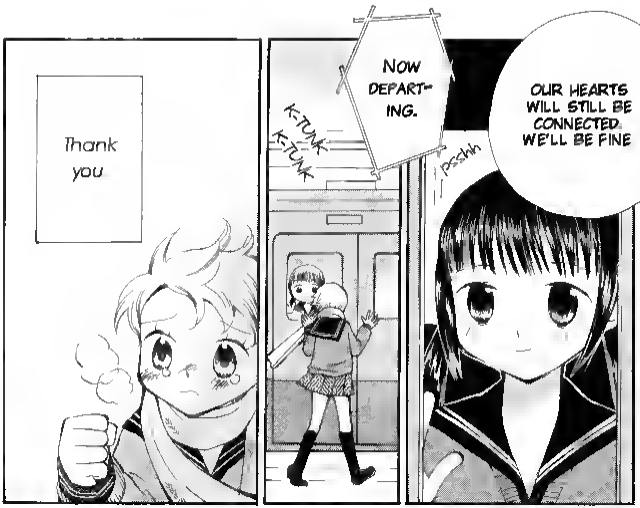
...WHAT?

...HEY.

WHAT'S THE MATTER? TRYING TO GIVE A MORE CONVINCING PERFOR-MANCE?
NO!
I THOUGHT WE'D ALWAYS BE ABLE TO ACT TOGETHER,

SILLY!
BUT NOW WE WON'T EVEN BE ABLE TO SEE EACH OTHER AGAIN.
WE CAN STILL SEE EACH OTHER AFTER WE GRADUATE!
BUT YOU'RE GOING TO TOKYO!

'The upheaval of the times
kept us from ever meeting again."
UM...
THINK BACK. WHAT'S THE NEXT LINE IN THE PLAY?
SO YOU SEE,
EVEN THOUGH WE'LL BE A BIT FAR APART,
"our years together, which were no less wonderful for having been spent in poverty
But we never forgot



Thank you
NOW DEPART-ING.
K-TUNK K-TUNK
OUR HEARTS WILL STILL BE CONNECTED WE'LL BE FINE
I'll never forget the dreamlike days we spent together
